V. 7.2.13

Mysore Government Press,

Bangalore, 7th Feb., 1913.

Dear Mr. Ramaswamaiya,

In reply to yor letter of last evening, No. G.4478/G.M. 236-12-3, re the printing of 7,000 posters "Delhi Bomb Outrage," may I say that the Govt. Press has not type suitable for undertaking the work. I could get over the difficulty as to the English portion by asking the help of the Wesleyan Mission Press at Mysore, and borrowing what ~~XXXXX~~ I wanted, and purchasing what could not be had there.

2. But as regards the Kanarese, this would have to be first drawn and then traced for lithographic printing. There is no type made anything like large enough to print from letterpress. This would mean that, if printed upon a litho. press here, only some 250 or 300 copies could be printed per day. As the posters will of course be required quickly, the only course (if the sample copy must be followed) would be to send the ~~work~~ to Addison's, Madras, who have litho. machines. They would require a drawing to size of the Kanarese portion. I can't say what their charges would be.

3. If the work were done here, partly by letterpress and partly by litho., the approximate cost would be something like Rs.200, including drawing, tracing, letterpress and litho. printing, and paper, plus cost of despatching as required. All this would take some three or four weeks.

4. May I suggest (presuming the work is urgent) that hand-bills of foolscap folio size, i.e., the size of this sheet, be issued first; ~~XXX~~ and in the meantime, if it be thought necessary, the posters could be proceeded with; but, instead of 7,000, say have 1,000 printed in the way I propose, viz., have them done here by the letterpress and litho. means.

5 The size of the sample is 22 x ~~XXX~~ 29, ~~it~~ a size we do not stock; but royal, 20 x 25 would, perhaps, do equally well.
6. Of course, in the event of the handbill being decided on, many more than 7,000 would be necessary, but this would present no difficulty to us. We could use, with advantage, some of the 3~~,~~pie paper now thrown out.

Yours sincerely,

C. W. Gates.
